KELLOGGSVILLE WINS FIRST OK BLUE FOOTBALL TITLE IN TEN YEARS

"Number one in eighty one!" the Rockets shouted, and number one they were! Kelloggsville went undefeated in league competition to win their first championship in ten years. The players and students will recall Homecoming, games in snow and mud, and a proclamation by the Mayor. The Rockets plan to follow through in eighty two.

HOMECOMING SMASH HIT

(See inside for our color section)

Beating Middleville 13-6 was just a beginning to a wonderful weekend for Kelloggsville.

At first, the game was close, but the Rockets easily pulled away from their opponents as the game progressed.

During halftime, the announcement of Ken Burns and Michelle Bursley as this year's King and Queen and the presentation of their court was a big thrill.

On Saturday, October 10, the celebrants entered a gym transformed into a circus. The musical talents of Oasis completed the successful evening.

REAGANOMICS HITS HOME ON K-VILLE STUDENTS

Federal funding for higher education has been reduced in the latest flashes of Reaganomics.

No definite information is being released regarding which students will be receiving financial aid or what amounts of federal aid will be available.

This will force many to take a new look at higher education. It will force many to pursue a degree while working part time.

THANK YOU MR. NELSON

Mr. Nelson is retiring after serving the district for 32 years. He was hired in 1950 to teach the 5th grade. He was the only male teacher in the elementary and labored away for the grand salary of 2400 hundred dollars per year. Mr. Nelson has taught 6th, 7th and 8th graders along with high school students. He taught drivers training for 16 years and was a class sponser for more years than he cares to remember. Mr. Nelson has many fond memories of Kelloggsville and does not regret any of his time here. "My last five years have been of particular satisfaction to me. On the whole, today's kids are better than they ever have been." Mr. Nelson attended South High for two years and then transferred to Davis Tech where he graduated from in 1944. After graduation, he entered the Navy and his tour of duty took him to the Philippines and North China. He was discharged from service in 1946 and then entered Western Michigan College from which he graduated in 1950. Kelloggsville students, staff and parents will miss Mr. Nelson!!! We hope the next part of his life will give to him as much as he gave to Kelloggsville.

HOMECOMING 1981 — A HUGE

THE DANCE

"Circus" was the theme at Kelloggsville's 1981 Homecoming. Karen Boyle was in charge of planning the dance. Many other seniors and class advisor Mrs. Donna Platte helped her with decorations and set-up.

The dance was held in the gym on Saturday, October 17. Ken Burns was elected king, and Michelle Bursley was chosen as his queen. The pop/rock band Oasis played from 8 until midnight, making the evening one to remember.

1) BACK: Lisa Dusendang & Ed Christians (seniors) Sherry Rose & Jim Grutter (Seniors)
Tammy Patton & Dave Brooks (seniors)
MIDDLE: Tim Riemersma & Wendi VanAllsburg (juniors)
King Ken Burns & Queen Michelle Bursley
Chris Mendendorp & Steve Nevseta (sophomores)
FRONT: Tracy Rodgers & Mark Boggiano (freshmen)
2) Last year's queen Kathy Nyenhuis holds pagette Nicole Herblet
3) Ken & Michelle on their way to be coronated

THE GAME

Friday, October 16 was the date of our homecoming game. We were set to play last year's league champions, Middleville. Our Rockets had already won four league games, but could they beat the Trojans?

In the second quarter, Jim Grutter ran 59 yards to score the first points of the game. Ken Burns kicked the extra point to put us ahead 7 to 0.

Middleville scored six points in the third quarter, giving our team a bit of a scare. Grutter put all fears to rest in the fourth by scoring yet again, making the final score Kelloggsville 13, Middleville 7.

Music was by Edye Evans and Friends. It was held at Fairway Estates in Jenison, Michigan. Approximately 200 people attended. Rainbow decorations covered the room and even the invitations had rainbows and flowers. Refreshments were served; tiny sandwiches, cookies, nuts, and chips. Everyone seemed to have a good time.

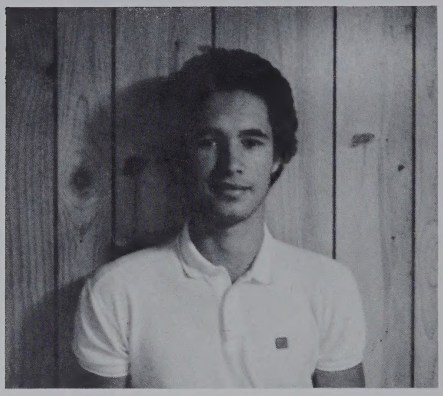
FOREIGN STUDENTS



Luis Dortas — Brazil

Claus Grill — Germany (left), Lau Miguel — Brazil (right)

1981-82 saw three students from foreign countries enroll at Kelloggsville. Claus Grill from Germany spent the entire school year with the Beurken family. While Lau Miguel and Luis Dortas, both from Brazil, spent one semester each with the Kelly family. Each student, in his own way, enriched the Kelloggsville student body, and hopefully, their lives were enriched by being here with us.

THE KELLOGGSVILE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT COUNCIL

"AN AVERAGE MEETING"

At exactly 9:10 A.M., on May 13, 1982, Steve Schultz, Council President, tried to call the meeting to order. Unfortunately, his mind was not on the business at hand, but on the Bahamas. It was easier to steal the money last year when he was the treasurer. The Council Vice President, Karen Boyle, was, as usual, prompt, but she was muttering to herself something about adjournment times and other trivial date. The secretary, Nancy Sloan, is always late. Someone else has to begin her minutes. How'd she ever get to be a senior? The other two seniors on the council were not in attendance. Dan Allen was working out a reasonably complicated way to plug pro-capitalism, new wave, and pro-world hunger into his graduation speech. Amy Mooney had to go to her business class, the main topic being the modern scientific method of the old "bucket on the door" trick.

The junior class was represented by Mr. I.M. Mature himself, Todd R. Wenzel. And also by his worthy colleagues: Lori Dunn (when she's not working), Mike Abson (the only quiet member), and Steve Doxtater (who enlivens many a Student Council meeting with board reports). And also by his not-so-worthy colleague, Chris Breen (need I say more?).

Moving on down the ladder of importance — the sophomores. There's Tammy Plants and Tom VanderLaan, who can always be counted on to probably/maybe volunteer to be sort-of workers; Bruce Saenz (probably the only sane member); and Tim Wolford (our most consistant member — he always abstains. It's difficult being neutral.). There's one more ... now what's his name ... you know him ... Steve? Biff? The one with the alligator. He's working his way up to take the prep's place when Todd gets class and turns punk. BOB RENEKER — that's him. Okay.

Let's see — seniors, juniors, sophomores — where are the freshmen (Jim Stortz, Annette Kline, Tracey Rodgers, Kelli Harley, and Rick VanderWal)? Oh, I see them! They are all sitting in a bunch over there watching each other's minds decay. After all, none of them wanted to be on the Council. Some sadist forced them into it.

That about wraps it up. Whoops, I forgot Mr. Sisson. He didn't seem to be in the best of moods either. Mr. Bloye's government class forgot to bring him a donut.

Hey, with a crew like this, do you think we got anything done?

THE 1981-82 STUDENT COUNCIL
